

A broadcast flag mandate for DTV is not in the public interest. The broadcast flag will make it harder for me to be confident that my DTV devices will interoperate. If I'm not confident of this, I will be much less likely to purchase such devices. More importantly, the broadcast flag cannot accommodate fair use and other rights reserved to me, a member of the public, by copyright law. A broadcast flag should not be mandated.